Getting here is a breeze.

Situated at the northern tip of Cape May County, Ocean City is conveniently located just an hour from Philadelphia, two hours from New York City, and two and a half hours from Baltimore. The city is easy to reach from major highways, including the Atlantic City Expressway and Garden State Parkway. Four main routes are available for travel on and off the island: the 9th Street Bridge, which leads to nearby Somers Point via Route 52; the 34th Street Bridge, leading to Marmora, Upper Township, and the Garden State Parkway; the Rush Chatten Bridge, which connects Ocean City with its southern neighbor, Strathmere; and the Longport Bridge, which provides easy access to the seaside towns of Longport, Margate, Ventnor, and Atlantic City.

Drivers of electric vehicles have access to four charging stations in the parking lot at 9th Street and Haven Avenue, as well as three behind City Hall. These Level 3 chargers can charge an electric vehicle in about 45 minutes, and the charging fee includes one free hour of parking.

For those traveling to and from the area by plane, Atlantic City International Airport is located in nearby Egg Harbor Township, less than 30 minutes away and offers flights to and from destinations such as Myrtle Beach, Orlando, and Fort Myers via Spirit Airlines. Travelers can fly on a variety of airlines to dozens of domestic and international destinations. The Ocean City Municipal Airport, located at 26th Street and Bay Avenue, is available for private flights.

The Ocean City Transportation Center, located at 10th Street and Haven Avenue, includes a New Jersey Transit bus station, with routes offering seasonal trips to New York's Port Authority Midtown Bus Terminal and daily trips to Atlantic City via the Atlantic County mainland.

Guests traveling from southern points can experience a truly unique trip on the Cape May-Lewes Ferry. After arriving at the Cape May Ferry Terminal, drivers can easily reach Ocean City in approximately 40 minutes via the Garden State Parkway.

Driving Directions

From Philadelphia and Points West:

Follow the Atlantic City Expressway to Exit 7S, Garden State Parkway South. To enter Ocean City via 9th Street, take Garden State Parkway Exit 30 onto Route 52 (West Laurel Drive). Happiness comes in waves.

With eight miles of pristine, powdery sand along our coast, it's no surprise that Ocean City has received numerous accolades, including Best Beach in the Northeast, New Jersey's Favorite Beach, one of the Top 16 East Coast beaches to visit, and one of the 13 Best Beaches in the United States. Whether you want to catch a wave or grab a nap, search for shells or work on your tan, Ocean City's beach will deliver.

Since 1898, the Ocean City Beach Patrol has been protecting visitors. Over the past 126 years, the OCBP has grown into one of the finest lifesaving squads in the country. At its peak staffing during the summer, the OCBP employs approximately 186 ocean lifeguards and EMT's to guard more than 40 beaches in America's Greatest Family Resort®. With expert attention from a renowned Beach Patrol, you can relax and enjoy your time on our coast.

Grab your beach tag, and head for the water. We've got plenty of well-maintained and accessible comfort stations, as well as accessible beaches for visitors with a lack of mobility. Let Ocean City show you what so many beach lovers have already discovered; we've got the Best Beach in the Northeast.

Beach Tags

Beach tags are required for all beach visitors 12 and older. The funds raised by the sale of beach tags help to keep the beaches and boardwalk clean. Beach tag prices are: $10 for a daily pass, $20 for a weekly pass, and $35 for the season ($30 if purchased before May 31).

During the season, you can purchase tags from a City representative at most beach entrances or on the beach. You can purchase a pre-season tag at:

The Ocean City Welcome Center
on the Route 52 Causeway

City Hall at 9th Street and Asbury Avenue

The 46th Street Welcome Center on West Avenue

The Henry Knight Building at 12th Street and Haven Avenue

The Aquatic and Fitness Center at 17th Street and Simpson Avenue

Some locations have limited hours during the pre-season, so be sure to call for hours before you visit.

Comfort Stations

Boardwalk restrooms are located at: 1st Street, 6th Street, the Music Pier (between 8th and 9th Streets), 10th Street, 11th Street, and 12th Street. There are also public restrooms at City Hall, 34th Street Playground, and 58th Street Beach. Family restrooms are located at 1st, 6th, 10th, 11th, and 12th Streets. All restrooms are handicap accessible. All restroom hours are subject to weather and crowd conditions. A privately-owned bathhouse at 13th Street and Ocean Avenue provides shower facilities and changing rooms from mid-June to Labor Day. Call (609) 399-7121 for information.

Accessible Beaches

Ocean City currently offers ADA-compliant beach-access mats stretching onto the beaches at Surf Road, Waverly Beach (off East Atlantic Blvd.), Stenton Place, 14th Street, 34th Street Beach and 58th Street Beach. Check ocnj.us/handicapped-accessibility for the most up to date information. The Surf Chair program offers free beach-accessible wheelchair service Memorial Day weekend through Labor Day weekend. Wheelchairs can be borrowed at the 46th Street Welcome Center from 9 am to 4 pm. To make a reservation (recommended) or learn more about this program, call (609) 554-0352. Surf chairs are also available at OCBP headquarters (1st Street, 12th Street, 34th Street, and 58th Street) for temporary use to shuttle individuals onto the beach.

Guarded Beaches

Ocean City beaches are fully guarded by the renowned OCBP from the last week in June through Labor Day. Lifeguard hours are 10 am to 5 pm on weekdays and 10 am to 5:30 pm on weekends and holidays. Swimming is permitted only on guarded beaches when lifeguards are on duty.

Our island has it all.

Ocean City is home to a number of unique neighborhoods, each with its own distinctive ambiance. From the stately Gardens to the bustling Boardwalk to the dynamic Downtown, each area of America's Greatest Family Resort® has special sights and attractions.

If you're staying in Ocean City, be sure to browse the lovely shops in our Downtown area. If you're spending most of your time on the Boardwalk, take a stroll or bike ride through the beautiful Gardens of the North End. After you've enjoyed the activities offered in the Bay and Marina District, venture to the South End to explore Corson's Inlet State Park.

Whether you want the excitement of a rollercoaster or the serenity of a nature walk, Ocean City's neighborhoods combine to offer the perfect vacation for every personality and interest.

The Boardwalk

The bustling 2 ½-mile boardwalk is one of the most recognizable areas in Ocean City. Stretching from St. James Place to 23rd Street, the Boardwalk features amusement rides to thrill visitors of all ages, eclectic shops, delectable dining options, and the historic Ocean City Music Pier. It's not surprising that Ocean City's promenade was named the Best Boardwalk in New Jersey!

Downtown Asbury Avenue

Located between 6th and 14th Streets on Asbury Avenue, the island’s Downtown features over 100 specialty shops and cafes. Browse and dine to your heart’s content in the heart of Ocean City.

Bay and Marina District

On the west side of Bay Avenue, the Bay and Marina District offers boat slips, jet ski rentals, and other water activities. Try your hand at fishing, savor a dockside meal, and enjoy life on the Great Egg Harbor Bay. This neighborhood is home to the Bayside Center, an activities and education facility dedicated to the environmental and cultural aspects of Ocean City’s bayfront. The Bayside Center is open to visitors in the summer months from 10 am until 4 pm.

North End

Located near the Ocean City - Longport Bridge, the North End, also known as The Gardens, features many single-family residences and large, verdant lots. The tranquil neighborhood offers lovely beaches and easy access to the nearby communities of Longport and Margate.

South End

From 34th Street to the southernmost point of Ocean City, the South End neighborhood offers beautiful wetland views. The South End is the narrowest point of the island, which means that no property is more than 2 ½ blocks from the water. This stunning neighborhood is home to Corson’s Inlet State Park, the largest tract of undeveloped land along the New Jersey waterfront.

Come out and play.

If you love fun, Ocean City is the place to be. From miniature golf to amusement rides, our island offers entertainment options for kids of all ages. Ocean City's 2 ½-mile boardwalk is bustling with activity, morning, noon, and night. Carousels, bumper cars, roller coasters, water slides, arcades, and other attractions offer thrills and excitement. Creatively themed miniature golf courses will make your daytime or twilight game entertaining and challenging.

The entertainment doesn't stop on the boardwalk. Throughout America's Greatest Family Resort, you'll find fun activities. Join the crew of a pirate ship, take flight with a parasailing trip, make a splash in an inflatable Aqua Park, or have a mermaid makeover. You can do it all in Ocean City, New Jersey.

Come on in.

The water's fine!

If you love the smell of the salt air and the feel of an ocean breeze, you're in luck. Ocean City is on a barrier island that separates Great Egg Harbor Bay from the Atlantic Ocean, giving you a range of water-related activities to enjoy.

From paddleboards to parasailing, Ocean City visitors can make the most of their time by the water. Take a kayak tour on the bay or try your hand at sailing lessons. Enjoy the tranquility of fishing from a nearby bridge or experience the excitement of waterskiing. Choose your favorite activity - or try a new one each day of your vacation.

Sailing

Surfing

Ocean City's gradually sloped beaches, optimal surfing waves, and clean water and shorelines make our island one of the most popular surfing destinations on the East Coast. Surfers can choose between guarded beaches at Waverly Boulevard, 7th Street, and 16th Street, which are designated surfing beaches, or they can surf on all beaches while lifeguards are off duty. A number of local surf shops offer hourly or daily surfboard rentals, as well as surf supplies. Surfing lessons are also available through surf shops and private surf schools.

Surf Fishing

If surf fishing is your thing, Ocean City beaches offer plenty of places to cast your line. Fishing is allowed at the odd-numbered streets from 17th Street to 59th Street.

The most popular times to surf fish are June through September when there is the most variety of fish. Kingfish, spot, croaker, summer flounder, striped bass, and blue fish are just some of the types of fish at that time.

Fishing is also allowed around the jetties before 9 a.m. and after 6 p.m.

To catch fish, it takes more than just having plenty out there. Knowing the right bait is key. Summertime baits for kingfish, spot fish and croaker are bloodworms and fish bites, where other fish, like striped bass, blue fish and summer flounder eat clam, mackerel, and mullet. But before getting down to the bait, you have to have the proper fishing pole. A surf rod and sand spikes, which is a rod holder to push the rod into the sand, are must-haves for a successful day of fishing.

Remember to register to fish. A fishing registration is free and can be done online at www.saltwaterregistry.nj.gov. Some fish, such as striped bass, blue fish and fluke are regulated. Know the rules.

Above all, be respectful of nature, pick up your litter and enjoy your time surf fishing.

Fishing

Whether you're interested in sea bass or stripers, wahoo or weakfish, Ocean City's waters are as productive as they are beautiful. Anglers visit the bay for weakfish, "snapper" blues, croaker, and flounder. There are three fishing piers on the Route 52 Causeway (9th St Bridge). Just a few minutes to the north, portions of the old Longport Bridge have been converted to a fishing pier, and a few minutes to the south, the Ocean Drive/Rush Chatten Bridge is an ideal spot to drop a line. Anglers over the age of 16 must register with the NJ Saltwater Recreational Registration Program at nj.gov/dep/saltwaterregistry.

Get moving or get back to nature.

Some visitors prefer to lie on the beach for the duration of their stay, and others prefer to stay active, exploring the local wildlife, getting some exercise, or enjoying outdoor play. Whether you're interested in birdwatching or basketball, pickleball or playgrounds, shell collecting or shuffleboard, Ocean City has the sights, the facilities, and the programs to suit your interests.

Get back to nature at the Howard S. Stainton Wildlife Refuge, Corson's Inlet State Park, Bayside Center, or on a beach walk. Enjoy a round of golf at our municipal course or at one of the outstanding courses in the area. Play tennis, pickleball, basketball or other outdoor sports at one of our beautifully maintained facilities. Keep up your fitness regimen at the Ocean City Aquatic & Fitness Center, and let your kids burn off some energy at one of our delightful playgrounds.

ECOTOURISM

Howard S. Stainton Wildlife Refuge

This 16-acre ecotourism site gives visitors an opportunity to watch waterfowl and marshland birds in their natural habitat. Located on Bay Avenue between 23rd and 30th Streets, the refuge is open daily from dawn to dusk.

Free Guided Beach Walks

Every Tuesday beginning at 9 a.m. and Wednesday at 6:30 p.m. in July and August, volunteer beach guides offer hourlong tours of the South End beaches. Guides share their knowledge and welcome questions about marine life, wildlife, shells and more.

Rookery at Route 52 Causeway

The Roy Gillian Welcome Center on the Route 52 Causeway is located on a salt marsh island. A rookery there provides birders with a prime spot to observe breeding wetland and coastal birds. Visitors will see herons, egrets, ibis and more.

Kayak Tours

Take a guided tour in a kayak or on a paddleboard offered by businesses on the island and experience the beauty of the back bays from a different vista.

Corson's Inlet State Park

The southern tip of Ocean City is home to Corson's Inlet State Park, 341 acres of undeveloped land waiting to be explored. From biking to birdwatching, and from boating to bathing in the sun, Corson's Inlet offers visitors the perfect setting to appreciate nature. Watch the migration of dolphins, geese, ducks, and butterflies, or try your hand at fishing for bluefish, kingfish, striped bass, and weakfish in this special seaside retreat.

The Bayside Center

Even if the weather isn't cooperative, you can still appreciate the island's natural beauty at the Bayside Center, located on the Bay between 5th and 6th Streets. The indoor museum features ship models, lifeguarding memorabilia, environmental displays, and models of Ocean City's historical buildings, built to scale. Throughout the summer, the Bayside Center hosts camps exploring topics such as weather, science experiments, pirates, and backyard birds and bugs.

Golf

If you want to work on your swing, Ocean City operates a 12-hole municipal golf course at Bay Avenue and 26th Street. The scenic course is open from mid-April through October. We've got culture down to an art.

If you think you need to choose between the beach and Bach, think again. Ocean City's vibrant cultural and artistic offerings range from Broadway-quality theatrical productions to painting workshops for children. The historic Music Pier hosts summer concerts by the Ocean City Pops Orchestra, fully staged musical productions by the Ocean City Theatre Company, and weekly concerts by well-known performers.

The Ocean City Arts Center hosts a wildly popular Art Show on the boardwalk and offers arts classes for all ages in its inspiring studios at the Ocean City Community Center. The Community Center is also home to the Ocean City Free Public Library, which hosts concerts, author talks, and children's programs, as well as the Ocean City Historical Museum, which makes the island's past come alive through exhibits and artifacts.

Downtown, you can purchase a truly unique memento of your Ocean City visit at the gallery operated by the Ocean City Fine Arts League, or visit a local shop or studio for a drop-in art class and workshop to create your own work of art.

We'll Help Your Vacation Hit All the Right Notes

While you're visiting America's Greatest Family Resort, be sure to enjoy the first-rate entertainment offered by the Ocean City Pops. An evening with the Pops can include anything from a fully staged Broadway musical to opera, jazz, theme nights, movie scores, or a children's concert.

For more information and our performance schedule, visit OceanCityPops.org.

Bring your faith to Ocean City.

In 1879, four Methodist ministers purchased land known as Peck's Beach for the purpose of establishing a religious resort. The tree that shaded the ministers as they made plans for the retreat lives on at the Ocean City Historical Museum, and the traditions of faith and fellowship live on in the island's many churches and chapels. Whether you are visiting for a few days or the whole season, Ocean City offers many options to worship during your stay.

Take a bridge to the past.

First surveyed in 1695, the island now known as Ocean City was used as a location for grazing cattle. In 1700, John Peck, a whaler, used the island as a base for his business, and the land became known as Peck's Beach. In the middle of the next century, Parker Miller and his family were the first year-round residents of the island. They began the tradition of catering to the needs of people seeking recreation, offering shelter and meals to mainland sportsmen who ventured to the island to hunt waterfowl.

In 1879, a group of Methodist ministers, Ezra B. Lake, James Lake, S. Wesley Lake, and William Burrell, came to Peck's Beach in the hopes of starting a Christian seaside resort. They purchased the island, made surveys, cleared ground, located major streets, and formed an organization known as the Ocean City Association. Adhering to strict Christian principles, they prohibited the manufacture and sale of alcohol and required the closing of all commercial enterprises on Sunday. Within the next few years, the Ocean City Association made remarkable progress in the town they named Ocean City, building homes, a hotel, stables, barns, two railroads, a trolley line, the water and sewer companies, and the first Ocean City Tabernacle, where regular Sunday worship services were held.

The fascinating history of Ocean City is highlighted at the Ocean City Historical Museum, located in the Ocean City Community Center at 1735 Simpson Avenue. Enthralling exhibits allow visitors to explore topics such as:

- The construction of the boardwalk in 1887 to provide easy access to the ocean and beach.
- The Sindia, a four-masted steel hulled bark that was shipwrecked on the Ocean City shore on December 15, 1901. The tiller post of the Sindia protruded from the beach, while the entire hull and most of the valuable cargo lay buried under the sand. The wreck was designated an official New Jersey Historic Site in 1969.
- Grace Kelly, American actress and Princess of Monaco. As a child, Grace Kelly spent summers in Ocean City with her family and continued to visit the family vacation home, even after she achieved stardom.
