Letter from the President

Dear Chamber Members,

I am excited to address you for the first time as President of our esteemed Chamber. It's been an eventful start to the year as we gear up for the 2024 season. The Chamber has been buzzing with activity, and I'm proud to share some highlights of our recent endeavors.

We've been diligently working behind the scenes to facilitate various initiatives, including hosting the highly successful Mayor's Forum, where vital discussions took place concerning our community's future. Additionally, our recent Job Fair provided invaluable opportunities for both job seekers and employers, fostering connections that drive our local economy forward.

National Small Business Week- April 28 – May 4

Let's come together to celebrate the backbone of our community - the small businesses that make Ocean City, NJ shine! Whether it's your favorite coffee spot, a charming boutique, or a family-owned restaurant, every purchase makes a big difference. Let's show our love and support by shopping local this week and beyond.

Occupational Heat-Related Illness and Injury Prevention Program \(A-3521/S-2422\)

The Occupational Heat-Related Illness and Injury Prevention Program (A-3521/S-2422), in particular, has raised concerns among local businesses due to its potential impact on operations and costs. We emphasized the importance of closely monitoring this legislation to ensure that the interests of Ocean City businesses are adequately represented.
